

Andy Warhol Inspired Art Competition

Hosted by

The Junior Auxiliary of Rankin County

Goal: Create an Andy Warhol inspired or replicated piece of art.

Participants: This art competition is open to all children living in Rankin County in grades K4-12th grade.

(This includes all public and private school students as well as home schooled students.)

- A teacher is welcome to curate art for his/her student and bring the student's piece for submission OR a parent is welcome to submit a child's piece of artwork.
- ONLY ONE PIECE PER CHILD MAY BE SUBMITTED.

Guidelines: Minimum size for artwork is 8x10. Maximum size is 18x24. Canvas mediums are preferred.

- Any artwork not submitted on a canvas should be framed at the time of submission.

Submission Deadline: Friday, December 15, 2023 by 5:00 p.m.

Drop Off Locations: Willow Blu in Richland, Whimsy Willow Boutique in Flowood, or Rankin County News in Brandon.

- All artists should attach a completed Artist Information tag to the back of their artwork.
- Any piece of artwork that does not have the completed Artist Information tag will be disqualified.

Judging: A selected panel of judges will select 3 finalists from each group category. Categories include K4-2nd, 3rd-5th, 6th-8th, and 9th-12th. A winner will be chosen from each group category, and the fan favorite will be chosen by gala attendees at the 38th Annual Junior Auxiliary of Rankin County's Children's Benefit Gala.

Display: The 3 finalists' pieces from each group category will be displayed at the 38th Annual Junior Auxiliary of Rankin County's Children's Benefit Gala.

- ALL art pieces submitted will be showcased at the Rankin County Storm Shelter on Friday, January 19, 2023 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Participants and their families are encouraged to attend. Light refreshments will be served.

Prizes: Each group category winner will receive a $50 gift card from Hobby Lobby. The Fan Favorite winner will receive a $200 cash prize.

Artist Information

Name: _____

Grade: _____

School: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____